

SPEAKER: URSULA ABLANQUE MEJÍA

Ursula Ablanque Mejía currently serves as Head of the Planning Department for the city of Bogotá. She previously held the position of General Manager of Bogotá's Urban Renewal and Development Company (RenoBo) from 2018 to 2019 and served as Director of Partial Development Plans at the Bogota's Planning Department from 2016 to 2018. She has also been a lecturer at the Faculty of Architecture and Design at Universidad de Los Andes.

With over 15 years of professional experience in both public and private urban development and construction sectors in Colombia, she is recognized as a highly skilled professional with strong technical expertise and leadership in urban regulation, as well as in the structuring and management of urban renewal and development projects.

Ursula Ablanque Mejía is an architect and urban planner, specialized in Regional Development Management, and holds a master's degree in urban planning.